Class History

In September 1948, 64 scared students entered Mrs. Castor's and Mrs. Wells's rooms. We lost Timmy Brown, Larry Swank, Darlene Kemmerly, Tom Corbin, Mary Enriquez, Nancy Hindall, Janet Musgrave, Leas Gonzalez. During the year we gained Freddy Gonzalez making us, at that time, the largest class to enter Arlington School.

After a pleasant vacation we came back to greet our teachers, Mrs. Wells again, and Mrs. Simpson. We met new friends Bobby Roof and Bill De Puy and said good-bye to Dennis Day and Sue Solomon.

Mrs. Pratt and Mrs. Simpson welcomed us to a new school year and a new building. We gained Linda Strickling and lost Allen Musgrave, Marsha Lintz, David Reigle, Marie Bosserman, and Eddie Reigle.

Guided by Miss Jones and Mrs. Beeson we entered our fourth year, gaining David and Nella Greene, Lee Wallace, and Bobby Decker--who moved away the same year.

In our fifth year Jim Porter came to us, while we lost Marlene Van Cleve, John Errett, Sherry Loach, and Lee Wallace. This year we were taught by Mrs. Patnales and Mrs. Firsdon.

Under the tutorage of "Mike" Gobrecht and Miss Foltz we entered the sixth grade, where we gained Addie Mae Rice and lost Linda Dawson, Bob Roof, David and Nella Greene, and Ian Treece.

Coming up in the world, we are in Junior High at last. Our home room teachers were Mrs. La Roche and Mr. Daley. Jim Dunn, Larry Day, and Wilma Wright joined us.

In our eighth year, with advisors Mrs. Welty and Mr. Mengert, we gained Ober Feasel and Patsy Cannode, while Addie Mae Rice, Dick Mercer, and Wilma Wright left us.

Finally, we have made it to high school, joined by Darlene Kemmerly. Among those who left us were Lilea Pifer, Judy Garlinger, Margaret Decker, Jim Dunn, Patsy Cannode, and Diana Turnbell. All this was under Mrs. Knight's and Mr. Bibler's watchful eyes.

We stormed into our Sophomore year under Mrs. Welty and Mr. Trostmiller gaining Don Reddick.

Almost at the end of our high school career, we were joined by Diana Turnbell, while Darlene Kemmerly left us. This under advisors Mrs. Welty and Mr. Peneton.

At last, we are Seniors under the guidance of Mr. Rost and Mrs. Schafer. Gene Fast came to us making a grand total of forty-three students hoping to graduate.

Class Prophecy

The papers I had planned to grade lay on my lap, my hand toyed unknowingly with the dials of my new TV set. First the murmur of a voice and a strange looking person appeared on the screen, then I became aware of what he was saying.

"Send in your request to station WFIN for the most unusual service possible. Anyone or anybody can be brought into your living room. Simply sensational!"

"What fun," I thought, "Why not visit with my old classmates." The idea conceived, I immediately wired a telegram to the station.

Minutes seemed like hours, especially to one as excited as I, but finally that familiar voice welcomed me again and across the screen familiar faces, older, yes, but the same old friends appeared.

A town, no a village, Arlington. There's the old High School building. Inside I see the superintendent, Miss Rachel Kimmel, seated at her desk simply glowering with rage at Don Reddick, the football coach. Don too is infuriated because she had stepped into a recent game and insisted on calling a play and the game had been lost. Then the commercial room appeared with Little Liz (Diane Knight) at her mother's old post and farther down the hall I saw the Feasels, Marilyn (Bame) and Ober, entering their twins in the first grade. On Ober's jacket I read, "Marilyn's Petunia Grower."

The screen shifted to an airport north of Arlington where the candidate for Governor of Ohio, Jan Rossman, is stepping down from the plane to give an election address. Same old Jan, bowing and kissing the babies. The one he's kissing is being held by a proud father, Jerome Glick, the local hair stylist. Standing nearby are Keith Houdeshell, sauerkraut taster for Heinz Company and Gene Musgrave, a squash and carrot taster for Gerbers. In the crowd I recognized Betty Krout and Carol Inbody of the K. & I. Realty Firm.

Now stepping down the steps I see Jan's secretary, Karen Hosafros, greeting the Arlington Mayor, Gene Fast. I looked closer and recognized the pilot as Sharon Richard.

The next scene shows a huge church in which the tall, solemn, Reverend William Bishop is receiving the wedding vows of Sandra Crates, the Florence Nightingale of 1972, and David Jolliff, a poet who is known as the Longfellow of his day. The music is furnished by the internationally famous organist, Ann Dally and opera singer, Nan Bishop. The reception was served at the famous Red Heart Tearoom, operated by Jo Ann Beagle and Diana Turnbell.

Next a court room--on the judge's bench sits Marie Waltermire. Summoning the court to order, State Patrol officer, Larry Day, brings forth the first case. It is no other than Neil Bushong, fined for speeding. Neil couldn't help it, for the play "Four Minutes" was waiting for its leading man.

A scene from "Holiday on Ice" shows the graceful Arlene Marquart and Gerry Mann in the leading rolls. The Stunning Starlits--Mary Alice Nesler, Nancy Baughman and Sandra Gossman, perform their sister act through a burning hoop. The lighting men for this performance were Ben Mitchell and Bill Leymaster.

Next I see Bill Bame, the Ambassador to France, stepping from a boat and being congratulated by a host of people. Just as one man stepped up I heard him say, "I owe it all to Arlington High," and that man to whom he was speaking was none other than Joe Brinkman of The Canadian Gobble Farms in New York on business. He invited Bill to an anniversary dinner with him and his wife, the former Judy Grieser, a society news-editor for the Toronto Times.

Next I saw a convention of business and professional people of Cleveland. Among the doctors I recognized dentist Judy Bates and veterinarian Susan Reinking, Lynn Orwick, editor of Woman's Day and Mary Lou Davis, the nationally famous research chemist.

Suddenly the classmates faces disappeared and I thought, oh what fun! I had had a nice view of all my old friends. When the new series of "Gunsmoke" came onto the screen, I realized I hadn't seen all of them yet. The new Matt Dillon portrayed by Keith Jolliff introduced his cast--Chester played by Buddy Steinman, Kitty by Ann Jameson. The play went on as formerly, as my three friends brought law and order to a forgotten ghost town.

My papers still lay ungraded and I sat as in a daze. So much had happened in a few short years. All my classmates seemed so happy in their chosen way of life.

Highlights

On August 19, 48 boys answered the call of Mr. Castor.

The season was started with a preview game at Arcadia which we won 12-0. Bill Bame and David Davis were outstanding players.

We then hosted Vanlue who trimmed us 26-0.

The next week we went to Arcadia and won 12-6. William Bishop was the hero of the game when he defected a pass and ran ninety yards to a touchdown. Bill Leymaster was the outstanding lineman.

We then moved to Van Buren and tied 18-18, with William Bishop again the outstanding player as he hauled in three touchdown passes thrown by Lynn Orwick. David Davis also put on a good performance and Lanny Dillon played a fine defensive game.

We then played at Cory Rawson where we won 18-7. The whole team played good ball. William Bishop caught the first touchdown pass and David Davis ran for the other two.

Then to Mt. Blanchard where we lost to a strong team 12-0. In this game the line and the quarterback played a fine game.

In our last game of the year McComb defeated us 22-8. The offensive line played good ball and Bill Bame ran for our lone touchdown of the evening.

Next in a non-league game we handed Hardin-Northern a 59-30 loss.

Our third league game was played at Vanlue and we came from behind to defeat them 59-40.

Next we defeated Van Buren 63-39. Fast made the nets sizzle by putting in 29 points.

We entertained Mt. Blanchard next and they gave us our first league defeat of the year 53-46.

The next game was played at McComb and we were again defeated 52-48. Orwick, Bame, and Fast all did their best and played a good game. This proved to be quite an upset for 5 teams were then tied for first place.

Our last league game was played on our floor against Cory-Rawson for the country championship. We started with a serious disadvantage, for Lynn Orwick was out with a foot injury. However the rest of the team played good ball as we lost out in a thriller to the end, the score being 54-53.

Last we played Arcadia in the tournament at Cory-Rawson and lost 38-41 in another close one. This game ended the season for us.

Rhythm and Harmony

The mixed, girls' and boys' choruses started practice in November with seventy-five, sixty-five, and sixty-nine, respectively.

The mixed chorus along with the grades presented the annual Christmas Program on December 20.

Selected members of the band and choruses are looking forward to participating in the All County Music Festival to be held at McComb, January 23. I am sure it will be a lot of fun, but hard work.

We are also getting ready for contests. Individuals and groups are preparing for the Solo and Ensemble contests. The band and choruses are getting ready for the District, and we hope State Contests. "Good Luck."

We want to thank Mr. Willeke for his patience and untiring efforts to make us have an outstanding music department. Thank you, Mr. Willeke.

Rhythm and Harmony

The Arlington Music Department started a musical fun-filled summer with the marching band composed of seventy-two members.

During the summer most of the parades, including the Peony Festival at Van Wert, McComb, Dunkirk, Mt. Blanchard, Vanlue, and Rawson, were sparked with the A.H.S. Marching Band. I might add that this year when the band went to Dunkirk we didn't get soaked. With our performance at the county fair, the summer band came to an end.

We then, buckled down and began practicing for the football games. It proved to be fun in spite of very hard work. This year the band introduced a precision march which made the band look very snappy and stunning.

After a concert in January the band members looked forward to the district and state contests.

We were very fortunate at the district and state contests last year, winning three medals. These medals were won by girls' and mixed Choruses, and the band.

G. A. A.

Cross Section G.A.A.

The G.A.A. is under new leadership this year. Mrs. Schafer our Physical Education teacher, here for her first year, is our advisor.

Last fall we elected our officers: Connie Wilson, President; Sharon Reichley, Vice-President; Karen Bishop, Secretary; Connie Bowers, Treasurer; and Becky Long, Reporter.

We sponsored our Homecoming Ceremony which was held October 16th. Following it we held a dance. The student body selected Judy Bates as Queen. Attendants: Senior, Betty Krout; Junior, Connie Bowers; Sophomore, Karen Bishop; and Freshman, Ann Long.

This year's activities included many different things. Some of which were: archery, badminton, shuffleboard, volleyball, soccer, baseball, ping-pong, stunts, tumbling, and basketball.

We held a Leap Year Dance on April 29th with girls inviting the boys. It was a great success.

This year we started a girls' basketball team. We competed with the girls' teams from other schools. This gave us much enjoyment and taught us good sportsmanship.

Our G.A.A. production for the end of the year was quite different from the past few years. It was a cross section G.A.A. show reviewing the activities of the past year. Included in this were our stunts, tumbling, and a basketball game. Our modern Robin Hoods gave us a lesson in archery.

All in all it was a very enjoyable year. We wish to say it was fun and express our thanks to Mrs. Schafer.

Latin Glimpses

The Latin Club consists of pupils who are currently taking Latin under the guidance of Mrs. LaRoche. The officers are: President, Lois Powell; Vice-President, Joyce Rossman; Secretary, Dennis Feasel; Treasurer, Lois Wilson; Reporter, Charles Nicholson.

Four years ago we held our first Latin Banquet in the Home Economics Room. The next year the enrollment expanded to the extent that it was held in the cafeteria. This event is so enjoyable that all eligible people, those who have had two years of Latin, look forward to it each spring.

The guests dress in togas and sandles just as the ancient Romans did. Slaves (persons in the 8th grade who plan to take Latin) serve us a three-course meal. We worship the god, Lars, before we eat. The slaves pass the finger bowls often because we must eat the meal with our fingers. After the meal the guests enjoy a program, parts of which are in Latin. The 1960 banquet was held April 27.

Toward New Horizons . . .

A. cake raffle was held December 4. The F. H. A. Parent and Daughter Banquet was held on March 25. The F. H. A. and F. F. A. Christmas Party was held on December 19.

Altogether it was a worth while and prosperous year.
